Adam Herzfeld is a Senior Associate at Wenger Plattner in the practice groups Private Clients and Litigation and Arbitration.

He primarily advises individuals and families in the areas of estate planning (wills, marriage and inheritance contracts, business succession) and estate administration (heir representation, executorship).

Adam Herzfeld advises and represents his clients before Swiss authorities and courts, particularly in (international and domestic) inheritance, commercial, liability, and employment law disputes.

Before returning to Switzerland in 2019, Adam Herzfeld practiced for several years as a lawyer in Israel, where he was active in the fields of inheritance, commercial, and civil litigation.
